For this challenge you need to take part in Fifa 16's World Cup qualifying matches against each other in order to win an automatic spot in Brazil 2016, this means you start off your level at the bottom of the table with an empty bench and you need to score as many goals as you can to tie or exceed the goal total of the other team.. My starting position was at the top of the left wing, scoring in an area where the left and right halves of the field were together (right and left halves were facing each other).
